

KAR Auction Services, Inc

Policy Guidelines for Review of Analyst Reports

Any review of research reports will be done only by authorized KAR personnel and will be done only to check the factual accuracy of information already in the public domain. If analysts provide to KAR personnel those sections of their research report that contain their conclusions, recommendations, valuations, or price targets, the company will not comment on those sections.